LAW SCHOOL SURVEY

The SBA requests your cooperation in completing the survey mailed to all UPS law students over break. The info obtained will be used in formulating policies concerning the new law center. Please return the form with accurate info.

LAW SCHOOL POLICIES & PROCEDURES

An open meeting will be held Tues 4/1 at noon in Rm 3. The meeting is to find out from students what administrative policies and practices seem illogical, unclear or unfair. Students will be ask what they understand the current policy to be and what changes or clarifications they would suggest. The Academic Stds Comm will then make recommendations to the faculty.

JUDICIAL CLERKSHIPS

An informational seminar will be held Wed 3/26 at noon in Rm 2 on judicial clerkships. Current clerks with the WA Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals will be there. Interested 2nd yr students should attend.

LEGAL EMPLOYMENT FOR WOMEN

The Women's Law Caucus is presenting two panel discussions. The 1st is Tues 3/25 at noon in Rm 1 and will focus on legal employment for women in the private sector. The panel will include attorneys from Seattle, Tacoma and Olympia firms. The 2nd, Thurs 3/27 at noon in Rm 1 will focus on the public sector with panelists from the Prosecuting Attorney, Legal Services and the Public Defender. A reception will follow in the Faculty lounge.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Comments are requested on the draft of the Code of Conduct on reserve in the library. It is hoped the Code can be adopted by mid-April. Direct comments to Gay Gellhorn.

SEXUAL HARRASSMENT

Keep Thurs. 4/3 from noon to 2 open for a panel discussion of Sexual Harrassment on the Job, with Christine Mrak, Patricia Robenson-Martin, and Sheila McKinnon. Sponsored by Radical Womyn's Caucus and Women's Law Caucus.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS

Two positions are open on this committee. Evening and second year students are especially encouraged to apply. Contact Gay Gellhorn for more info.

BEGINNING A LAW PRACTICE

This is the title of a seminar to be held at the U of W, 4/12 presented by Epperson and O'Shay. The fee is $45. For more info contact Curt Epperson, 236-0432 (Mercer Is).
